News of People and Events.

Happenings Briefly and Reliably Put Before You.

Annual Hop.

It is hoped that all friends of the Roanoke Library will remember that the annual hop will be given on Friday night, October 25, at Hotel Roanoke.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

The clerk of the court issued marriage licenses yesterday to the following parties, all of this city: Emmett Ashworth and Hattie E. Murrell; Henry A. Washington and Miss Blanche Lawson.

Selling Liquor Without License.

Officers Griffin and Austin arrested R. L. Sigmon, of Pig river, Franklin county, yesterday on the charge of retailing mountain liquor on the streets without a license. Sigmon confessed and was fined $7.50 and costs and was allowed to shake the dust of Roanoke from his shoes.

Attractive Stock.

W. W. Workman & Co., the enterprising furniture dealers, have a most excellent stock of every article carried in their line. Their stock is so varied and extensive as to accommodate most any taste and pocket. They are house-furnishers from the basement to the garret.

Church Will be Dedicated.

Bishop E. D. Kephart will be here on the 9th of November and will lecture in the United Brethren Church at night. On Sunday he will preach twice, morning and evening, and the church will be dedicated. On Monday night following he will also lecture. Mr. Kephart has traveled in the Eastern countries and is quite a learned man.

Death of Mrs. Neighbors.

Mrs. Fannie Neighbors, wife of J. F. Neighbors, died at the family residence, 705 Roanoke street s. w., at 8 o'clock Monday night. Deceased was 23 years of age and leaves one child, about 3 years old. She was sick for six months before death relieved her of her sufferings. Interment will take place to day at 11 o'clock at the old Bandy burying grounds on Back creek.

A Serious Charge.

Harvey Dow, a white man, who figured conspicuously in the riot of two years ago, was arrested yesterday on the charge of felony and lodged in the city jail. The warrant on which he was arrested was sworn out by John J. Quinn, charging Dow with assaulting Frederick and Leo Quinn, two small boys, with intent to commit a nameless crime and otherwise to injure the said children.

Mr. Lyman Leaves.

W. W. Lyman, formerly railroad secretary of this city, left last night for Utica, N. Y., having been called to the railroad work in that city. Mr. Lyman will go by way of the Old Dominion Steamship line direct to New York city, thence via the New York Central road to Utica. Mrs. Lyman will remain in Roanoke for the present, but will doubtless go to Utica about January 1.

Register at Once.

Have you registered yet? If not you had better attend to this duty today; to-morrow you may forget it. In the First ward you will find the registrar, O. D. Derr, at Roberts' store, corner Commerce and Campbell streets, opposite the courthouse; Second ward, Lee H. Simmons, registrar, at 17 Campbell ave.; Third ward, J. L. Kelley, registrar, at 418 Commonwealth ave., after 6 o'clock p. m., works in the Norfolk and Western office; Fourth ward, Edward White, registrar, at 108 South Jefferson street; Fifth ward, M. P. Scott, registrar, at Bohn's store, Park street.

Reduction in Prices.

Manager Hooper, of the Academy of Music, has guaranteed to Frederick Warde the sum of $500 if he would agree to present "The Mountebank" to the Roanoke people. On account of this guarantee Mr. Warde wrote Manager Hooper a letter stating that he did not play to a less price than $1.50, but would in this case give the people of this city the advantage of the guarantee, and that he might place the tickets on sale at 25c, 50c, 75c and $1, which was done. The sale of seats is already very large, which insures a good attendance on to-morrow night.

Hall and Festival.

There will be a festival given in St. Andrew's Hall to-night. The Roanoke Machine Works orchestra will be present to furnish music, and after lunch has been served dancing will be indulged in by those who are fond of the recreation. The doors will be open at 8 p. m., but the entertainment will last until 12 o'clock. An admission fee of fifty cents will be charged each person. A spirited contest for a gold-headed cane will take place between candidates representing three prominent Catholic organizations in this city, viz: Catholic Knights of America, Young Men's Institute and Ancient Order of Hibernians.

The Horse Show.

A large crowd attended the horse show last night. The performances have been of such a nature that large crowds have been drawn to witness them. The show delights all who attend. The entertainment is equal to that of some of the high priced shows going through the country. The educated horses and ponies do everything but talk. Mr. Sparks conducts his show with a view to making a record for fair dealing. No fakery of any character are allowed with the show. A special ladies' and children's matinee will be given this evening at 2:30 and the night performance begins promptly at 8 o'clock.

At Calvary Baptist.

At the Calvary Baptist Church last night Mr. Schofield preached to a large congregation. Many were turned away, not being able to get in the house. Mr. Schofield was very hoarse, but spoke as best he could on the subject of "Jesus Christ." Many people manifested a desire to become Christians and a large number of conversions were made. There are a large number of Christian workers attending these meetings nightly and several of the pastors of the city are lending material aid, both by their presence and work in bringing souls to Christ. Evangelist Strouse is also assisting in the services.

Big Hurrah Last Night.

Machine Democracy held a fairly well attended meeting at Bohn's hall last night at which the leaders attempted to enlighten a few of the people of the Fifth ward on the issues involved in the present campaign. They had the Park Street Band over, which paraded the streets of the northwest section of the city in the hope of getting out the voters. In order to swell the crowd about fifty members of the combine, together with the ward heelers and paid workers, were present to cheer the speakers and arouse some enthusiasm. These fellows did not fail to respond in proportion to their salary.

Capt. Berkeley and Mr. Watts defined their positions, after which W. A. Glasgow made a speech in which he reiterated the same statement he has been making regarding Mr. Watts' position on the gas and water bill question. His speech was especially characteristic from the statement which he made in regard to the charge that the Democratic machine was preparing to buy the negro vote. He said and emphasized in the very strongest language he could command, that the proposition was absurd and that "WHO WOULD TRUST A NEGRO WITH A DOLLAR FORTY FEET AWAY FROM THE BALLOT BOX?"

This sentiment was liberally applauded, and shows to the colored voter the estimate placed on his political services by the leaders of Democracy in this city.

Judge Marshall also entertained the people for a short time.

THE PERFORMANCES YESTERDAY.

Gilmore's Band Delights the Academy Audience Yesterday Afternoon.

In criticizing the very excellent performance given by Gilmore's Band last spring at the Academy of Music it was claimed in this column that certain deficiencies existed in the construction of the band as a whole (notably in the reeds), the effect of which was to give undue prominence to the brasses. The correctness of this criticism is borne out by the fact that, recognizing the same defects, the accomplished leader, Victor Herbert, has added at least ten additional instruments to the band since that time, and correspondingly strengthened its effectiveness as a properly balanced organization. At no time in its history (and it has a glorious one) has it done better work than that which marked the superb rendition of the overture to Rossini's "William Tell" at yesterday afternoon's well attended matinee at the Academy.

Under the intelligent, magnetic direction of Victor Herbert, the band has attained a standard of excellence that is equalled by few and surpassed by no other organization in the country. In all the qualifications of a first-class band, such as prompt attack, splendid stops, sostenuto and staccato effects, delicate shading and refined phrasing, it is without a peer. Mr. Herbert's compositions figured largely in the programme, rather too extensively for those who were anxious to hear the works of the old masters. They were, however, bright and vigorous without exception, particularly his latest march, "Salute to Atlanta," which opened the concert and earned a spontaneous encore.

One of the finest numbers of the programme was Mr. Herbert's exquisite rendition of Hertz's "Serenade" on the violinello, and barely second in point of excellence were the superb French horn effects in the instrumentation which accompanied his solo.

Miss Ida Klein, the vocal soloist of the organization, possesses a fine dramatic soprano of considerable range and rich quality. Her selection, "Robert le Diable," from Meyerbeer's "Robert le Diable," suited her voice to perfection, and caused an enthusiastic encore, to which she responded with "Way Down on the Suwanee River." Oh, Christine Nilsson, on you rests the responsibility of inaugurating the "Suwanee River" encore inflection over twenty years ago, and it still lingers to torment us. Both the cornet solo by Mr. Clarke and the piccolo solo of Signor De Carlo were artistically rendered.

At the evening entertainment the stirring drama, "A Ride For Life," was given to a meagre audience. The play is an interesting one, the situation strong and effective (although they occasionally overstep the borders of probability) and the mechanical effects unique and startling. The company producing the play was fairly effective, the strongest members being Atkins Lawrence, as the manly and persecuted hero; Wilbur Hudson, as the rascally Italian; and Miss Beatie Taylor, in the character of the heroine.

THE LOUISVILLE RACES.

Frank Agan Beats Robert J. and Lowers His Own Record.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22. — Good weather, good finishes and a crowd of 3,000 people characterized the second day's racing of the Louisville Driving and Fair Association. The event of the day was the free for all pace, and it is doubtful if the kings of the pacing world have given an exhibition so prolific of excitement as to-day's, although the time was not fast. Frank Agan lowered his record of 2:06 1/4 to 2:05 1/4. The track was at its best, but even at that it was probably a second slow.

Robert J. made a noble struggle for victory and Geers drove him out in every heat, but Frank Agan, who was not sent out until the third, won the last three heats, the third and fourth without more than a nose to spare from Robert J. Joe Patchen was the only one of four pacers who failed to take a heat, but he was clearly out of shape, showing some signs of lameness.

Frederick Warde.

Of the play which is announced for production at the Academy of Music Thursday evening by Frederick Warde and his company the following criticism is taken from an exchange:

"D'Emery's brilliant romantic drama, 'The Mountebank,' was splendidly presented by Frederick Warde and his excellent company last evening before an appreciative audience. In the role of William Belphegor, the 'Wandering Mountebank,' Mr. Warde has plenty of room for the display of his versatile histrionic powers. His portrayal of the anguish of the deserted husband is a masterpiece of acting. A more emotional situation than that at the climax of the second act is seldom seen on the stage, the audience being spellbound as father and son were overwhelmed with grief. Both were compelled to come before the curtain in response to the storm of applause. Again, at the climax of the third act, Mr. Warde and the clever Count de Rollac, personated by Mr. Hennan, were rewarded with a curtain call. The rest of the cast is also satisfactory."

In addition to this dramatic company Mr. Warde carries a double quartette of trained vocalists, who contribute largely to the success of "The Mountebank" by their rendition of the musical numbers introduced.

Manager Hooper is guaranteeing Mr. Warde $500, and it is left with the amusement-loving people to say whether he has to draw on his bank account or not. The tickets for Warde are now on sale. Manager Hooper has arranged that the prices shall only be 25c, 50c, 75c and $1, which are less than Mr. Warde ever played and only consented to do so on account of Manager Hooper's guarantee. Secure your tickets at once and don't keep Jack on the anxious bench.

A Fine Show.

We have not the least hesitancy in pronouncing Prof. John H. Sparks the king of horsemen, and his performance occupies no less a place of distinction in the animal world. We have never witnessed such a marvelous performance as given by his horses. They seem possessed of as much intelligence as the average man. They play a school scene, in which the horses act the part of scholars and the little mule the part of teacher. They add, multiply and subtract as proficiently as they eat hay. They play sick, play doctor, go to the money drawer and get any class of money called for, jump rope and bring mail, etc. These are but a few of the many acts the horses perform, but it serves to illustrate the high standard of their entertainment as a whole. Other attractions to be seen are excellent gymnasts, Japanese perch performers, contortion feats by a boy, who is certainly a wonder, and two good, knock-about, talking clowns. The whole concludes with the funniest mule act on earth. This show is up-to-date in every sense of the word and refined throughout the entire programme.

UNTOLD MISERY FROM RHEUMATISM C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $1000 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assured, by the doctors, that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphia. I had my limbs bandaged in clay, in sulphur, in putty; but these gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful tortures, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 165 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."

Never Before

has our stock been more absolutely complete than now. Our Millinery Goods from both foreign and home markets have been much greater this season than any previous one, and we boast of having the most complete and attractive line of Millinery ever displayed in this city. We again emphasize the point, we do not offer a list of cheap and worthless goods at microscopic prices, quoting them as being worth many times that price, but we do insist that our goods are of the best, from the lowest price goods to the very finest sold in our Departments at rock bottom prices. This statement is subject to substantial proof during every business hour of the day. We respectfully invite everybody to inspect our goods.

Cloaks. Cloaks. Cloaks.

The styles are awfully pretty this season—the most graceful of any year, in fact. All the cloak-makers have been turning out extra fine work. Our line is even finer than most of the others you look at. It contains a bigger and better class of goods besides, and in addition we've placed such low prices on every garment that hesitancy when purchasing is wholly unnecessary.
